

Platinum-Selling Musician Lisa Loeb Performs for Families at the Jewish Museum October 22

New York, NY, September 25, 2017 – Singer-songwriter Lisa Loeb will perform a concert for families on Sunday, October 22 at 11:30 am at the Jewish Museum. The Los Angeles-based mother of two makes her debut at the Jewish Museum, and will play songs from her albums kids' albums Catch the Moon, Nursery Rhyme Parade!, and Parents' Choice Gold Award winner Feel What U Feel, and other catchy pop melodies.

A trailblazing independent artist, Lisa Loeb was the first pop musician to have a number one single while not signed to a recording contract with the platinum-selling hit song "Stay (I Missed You)" from the film Reality Bites. She continues her career writing songs for both adults and kids, including composing the music for the children's television series If You Give a Mouse a Cookie. She also writes children's books, acts and does voiceover work for animated series such as Disney Junior's Jake and the Neverland Pirates and Doc McStuffins, and supports non-profit causes including her Camp Lisa Foundation, which helps send kids to camp. Lullaby Girl, an album of soothing songs for all ages featuring a quartet of world-class jazz musicians, will be released on Amazon Originals in October 2017.

Tickets are $16 general; $13 Jewish Museum family level members. This concert is for children ages 3 to 8. Adults are asked to accompany their children. Tickets can be purchased online here.
